

Classify products and technology with an easy step-by-step process

Web-based, comprehensive Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) and U.S. Munitions List (USML) classification software

Quickly classify the item by answering a series of questions

Optimized search algorithms allow user to view the definitions, general, special and technical notes as well as applicable controls, country charts, licensing requirements and license exceptions in a single step

Classifications and relevant sections of the regulations are cross-referenced

Identify the applicable license requirements and exceptions for products and technology

Identify the applicable controls to the transaction

State-of-the-art software provides user with all the necessary information such as the license requirements for destination countries, license exceptions and country specific warnings

Log the actions for record retention purposes

Single step process allows user to view the content of the specific part/section of the regulations

INTREDEX

Trade Compliance Solutions

Intredex.com

Request a demo:
intsales@intredex.com

Phone: 888-397-1777

Searchable, fully integrated, up-to-date export control regulations content

Complete and comprehensive library of export control regulations including the U.S. EAR, ITAR, OFAC, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Chemical and Biological Weapons Proliferation Control and the U.S. Census Foreign Trade Regulations

Up-to-date content with ongoing changes to the regulations

Integrated to export classification and license determination software